

KKK Holds Rally In ^{F.P. Oak} Cecil Co. _{6 21 71}

RISING SUN, Md. (AP) — H What police termed as the biggest Ku Klux Klan rally in years was held without event in this northern Cecil County community while about 40 riot-clad state troopers remained on alert Saturday night.

More than 70 persons took part in the rally.

The traditional cross was burned while eight white robe clad Klansmen rode white horses during the ceremony attended by an estimated 400 persons, according to police accounts.

Robert Shelton, Imperial Grand Wizard, spoke during the night time rally, following other events began at noon.
